Can your company support Call in Time?

Call in Time is Age UK's award-winning national telephone befriending service where volunteers from a range of corporate partners make a weekly 20-minute call to a lonely older person, helping us to reach those most in need. Why should we become a Corporate ... Corporate Member of Call in Time? It's easy - Call in Time is a bite-sized volunteering opportunity for your employees. They don't even have to leave their desk to do it! It's meaningful - together, we would be addressing a real societal issue, demonstrating
