Diary and Events for 2021

Welcome to the Diary of Beckingham cum Saundby for 2021. The Diary will show regular activities and meetings as well as some events of possible interest to the community. Some of the entries may be highlighted and when clicked on will show more detailed information and images of those events or items. We hope you will find them interesting and informative and welcome your views and comments. Please scroll down for the Diary. For previous years details please click on the year 2019 and 2020.

Please contact Pat Suart if you have any forthcoming events you would like to appear on the diary.
