

Together we make RfS unique – assess, analyse, review, report AND publish.

Links to our publications can be found on www.ridingforsmiles.org

New publications include:-

A case study of siblings reunited.

Comments on moving into the 'new' normal.

Mental Health Project – Towards Assessment of Outcomes

---

Thursday November 10th. What a fabulous day.

- 7:30am, staff at Coloured Cob arrive. Lots of preparation to do.
- 9:30am, the film crew from BBC Nottingham arrive.
- 10:00am, children and staff from Archdale School arrive
  - filming commences
- 11:00am, children and staff from Stubbin Wood school arrive.
  - filming continues
- 11:30am, child and staff from Whaley Thorns School arrive.
  - filming continues
- 12:30pm, filming ends with hours of great footage in the camera
- 1:30pm, the BBC film crew, the Chair of RfS and his wife retire to the Elm Tree. The crew rave about the children, the wonderful facilities, and the amazing achievements of Riding for Smiles. Together we are riding for smiles.

Wednesday November 16th.

- RfS features with a short piece on East Midlands breakfast news.
- RfS excited to see a piece on East Midlands lunchtime news.
- RfS gets really excited with a longer piece on East Midlands Today at 6:30pm.

The piece from East Midlands Today is now available on the RfS Website, links are on the front page. You may have to skip the Ads. www.ridingforsmiles.org

---

November 2022 was our busiest month in 2022 with 260 one-hour experiences delivered.

---

Stephanie Hind
info@ridingforsmiles.org

Dr. Geoff Cutts
chair@ridingforsmiles.org