14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest."
- Mt 11:28

"I give praise to you, Father, Lord of Heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones. Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him" (Matt 11:25-27).

Background on the Gospel Reading

Sunday's reading from Matthew's Gospel comes after a discourse in which Jesus reproaches people who have witnessed his mighty deeds yet still lack belief. In this context, today's Gospel explains the reason for this unbelief and reveals what is necessary for faith. Today's Gospel also continues to enhance our understanding of discipleship as last week's Gospel did.

Jesus first prays in thanksgiving to God who has made himself known to Jesus' disciples. He praises God who has made himself known to the "little ones" and not to the wise and learned. As in other recent readings from Matthew's Gospel, a contrast is made here between the unbelieving Pharisees, who are wise and learned, and the faithful disciples, tax collectors, and sinners with whom Jesus keeps company.

The second part of this reading calls to our attention the unity between the Father and the Son. God has made himself known through Jesus, and in knowing Jesus, we come to know the Father. In Jesus' life and in his person, God reveals himself to us.

In the concluding sentences of today's Gospel, Jesus' teaching is again contrasted to the teaching of the Pharisees. This common theme of Matthew's Gospel probably reflects tension that existed between Jesus and the Pharisees and between the Pharisees and the community of Christians for whom Matthew wrote. Pharisaic Judaism became the predominant form of Judaism after the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem about 70 A.D. Here that tension is expressed as alternative paths of holiness. The careful observance of the Mosaic law taught by the Pharisees could be experienced by some as difficult and burdensome. In contrast, Jesus' way of holiness is presented as uncomplicated and even restful.

Bassetlaw Food Hub

St Paul's Food Hub is not part of the Food Bank and is open to all the community. The food available each week has either been donated to the local community hubs by local supermarkets or purchased from FareShare. We have no idea from one week to the next what foods will be available and it is always a great surprise!

The purpose of community food hubs is to cut down on the amount of food wasted, which ends up in landfill, and to redistribute that food at an affordable price

The St Paul's food hub team are keen to make the hub an inviting and informative experience. We are personally inviting those who come to arrive earlier and sit and chat with us and other members of the community while enjoying a cuppa and biscuit. A children's corner is also set up.

Please pass this information on to anyone who you think might be interested and would benefit from the affordable food.

We welcome people from 1pm when tea etc will be available with the sale of food beginning at 2pm

£3.50 per plastic carrier bag and £5 for larger supermarket bags when food stocks allow.
