

King Charles III has been encouraging the public to give back to local communities.

In recognition of the work of volunteering and charities locally, the Walks of Life Museum is celebrating International Day of Charity.

This started as a Hungarian initiative to commemorate Mother Teresa's death in 2011. To promote solidarity social responsibility and public support. On the 17th December 2012, the United Nations General Assembly resolved to adopt this, the prime purpose being to provide a platform for charitable-related activities all over the world. Mother Teresa said, "If we have no peace we have forgotten that we belong together". The museum wants to help local volunteers and charitable causes promote their work and provide an opportunity to fundraise.

On Saturday 9th September we will offer a stall free of charge in our Rural Life barn. This is an opportunity to meet together, share experiences of volunteering and raise funds. If you would like to be involved please contact us at the Walks of Life Museum, 33 Lincoln Road, Tuxford, Newark Notts NG22 0HR
