

Outdoor Volunteer of the Year: Christine Mead

Christine is a dedicated and wonderful member of the Programming team of volunteers at Clumber Park.

‘Hundreds of visitors have enjoyed the walks provided by Christine. The programming team would not have the time to devise, recce and deliver these many walks so this is an invaluable asset to the National Trust.’

Christine

- ✓ Alongside other volunteers, has devised, planned and delivered a series of Heritage and horticulture walks, showcasing the 3800 acres of Clumber park.
- ✓ Volunteers across different departments and is the reason why Clumber park is as stunning as it is.
- ✓ Spends hours litterpicking across the park.
- ✓ Plans and delivers the discover clumber walks, which are a 2 hour walk discovering the unbeaten tracks of Clumber Park.
- ✓ Has an increased sense of wellbeing through the enjoyment of being out in nature and spending time with others.
