

Food Insecurity and Sustainability Volunteer of the Year: Robin Trowle

Robin is Bassetlaw Foodbank's longest standing volunteer, volunteering with the charity since it was established over 10 years ago.

‘His commitment to the charity and its cause is awe inspiring. We cannot put a price on the contribution Robin has made to his community, and his incredible commitment should be recognised and celebrated!’

Award collected by Robert Garland from Bassetlaw Foodbank

Robin

- ✓ Collects donations from his church and arrives each week with a cake to keep the volunteer's spirits up, ready to help where needed.
- ✓ Has contributed approximately 1,144 voluntary hours to Basetlaw Foodbank's work.
- ✓ Helps in the warehouse, sorting donations and packing up emergency food parcels.
- ✓ Has gained a sense of purpose, community, and friendship.
- ✓ Knowing that he has had a positive impact on someone's life is incredibly rewarding and has had a positive impact on his wellbeing.