Looking for your next adventure?

The Hardwick Estate has so many experiences to offer. We are building a team of Event Volunteers to offer short-term support our Summer of Play offer during the school holidays.

Our team is full of inspiring people from all walks of life who get a real buzz from working and learning together.

We are currently looking for Events Volunteers

Ready to get involved? To check availability of roles and to find out more about volunteering opportunities, email the team at volunteering.hardwick@nationaltrust.org.uk
