

Fundraising Volunteer of the Year: Stuart Dixon

Stuart has been fundraising for the Bluebell Wood hospice for the past 7 years. In his time volunteering he has raised over £314,000.

‘Stuart has made a huge difference to Bluebell Wood. He represents the charity all over the country, whilst raising much needed funds. Statutory funding makes up 16% of the cost of running the hospice and the rest is raised through fundraising activity.’

Stuart’s award collected by Ruth Wallbank from Bluebell Wood

Stuart

- ✓ Sells personalised name stickers that the public can buy to place on his Jaguar cars.
- ✓ Travels all over the country attending different events, raising money and spreading awareness for the hospice.
- ✓ Loves volunteering and fundraising for Bluebell Wood. It makes him feel that he is giving back to his local community which increases his happiness and wellbeing.